The splendor of the king clothed in majesty

The splendor of the king clothed in majesty lyrics.

Chris Tomlin wrote How Great Our God Is by contemplating Psalm 104 and the greatness and majesty of the Lord. The first verse certainly echoes that psalm, but then expands to some features of God's greatness. It marvelously brings together the truths of the Old and New Testaments about our great God. by Chris Tomlin, Ed Cash, and Jesse Reeves Verse 1: The splendor of a king clothed in majesty, Psalm 104:1 Bless the Lord, my soul! 1 Chronicles 16:31 Let the heavens rejoice; and let him clothe himself with light, and the darkness conceals himself. Psalm 104:2 Thou shalt shalt thou be clothed with light as with a mantle, and spread out the heavens as a tabernacle. And trembles at his voice Trembles at his voice from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem: the heavens and the earth shall tremble. But the LORD is a refuge for his people, and a stronghold for the children of Israel. Chorus: How great is our God, sing with me How great is our God; and all shall see how great is our God, and how great is our God. Psalms 147:5 Great is our God. Psalm 30:15 My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies and from my persecutors. The beginning and the End". Divinity Three in One: Father, Spirit, Son. 2 Corinthians 13:14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. Titus 3:4-6But when the lovingkindness of God our Savior appeared, and his love for men, he saved us, not by righteous works which we had done, but according to his mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, which he poured out abundantly on us through Jesus. 1 Christ our Savior, Ephesians 2:18-22 through him we both have access to the Father in one Spirit. So then you are no longer strangers and strangers and strangers and prophets, having Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone, in whom every building, well built, grows up to become a holy house in the Lamb Speaking of Jesus in Revelation 5:4-8 Then I began to weep a lot, because no one was found worthy to open the book or to look into it; and one of the elders said to me, "Stop weeping, behold the Lion." And I saw a Lamb standing between the throne and the elders, as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent into all the earth. And he came and took the book from the right hand of him that sat on the throne. And when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each with a zither and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. Chorus: How great is our God, sing ye with me How great is our God, and a great King above all gods. Thou art the name above all names, Philippians 2:9-11 For this reason God hath exalted him, and that are in heaven, and that are in heaven, and that are in heaven, and that are on earth, and that are on earth, and that are in heaven, and that are in heaven, and that are in heaven, and that are on earth, and that are on earth, and that are in heaven, and that are in heaven, and that are on earth, and that are on ear Psalm 18:3 I call upon the Lord, worthy of praise, and have been saved from mine enemies. And my heart and I will sing how great our God is! Psalms 104:1 Bless the Lord, my soul! Lord my God, you are clothed with splendor and majesty, I will bless you, Lord, with all my soul!
