The Blue Bike

It was the first day of spring break. Little Mary went to visit her grandma and grandpa. Mom went with her. There Mary found a blue old bike in the garage. She showed it to her mom and asked if she can ride it. "You can ride it if you want, but you need to wear a helmet to protect your head," said Mom. Grandma gave Mary a helmet and helped her clean the old bike. Grandpa pumped air in the tires. Mary was so proud of her blue bike!

The Ugly Duckling

© Written by Tasha Guenther and illustrated by Leanne Guenther
 Based on the original tale by Hans Christian Andersen

There was once a mother duck. This mother duck had no children yet for none of her eggs had hatched.

She waited patiently day and night for her babies to hatch. One day, as she was sitting on her nest of eggs the mother duck felt something move beneath her.

CRACK!! CRACK!! CRACK!! CRACK!!

Filled with happiness, the mother duck watched as, one by one, her eggs hatched. She was so excited to lead her children to the pond and teach them all the ways of being a duck. Unfortunately for the mother duck, one egg was left to hatch. This egg was larger than the rest. This egg was browner than the rest. Her little ducks impatiently waited for two more days and nights.

"I want to go to the pond, Mother," one baby duck quacked.

"Let's go! Let's go!" two more quacked excitedly.

But the mother duck made them all wait, for she promised herself that she would love all her children the same.

CINDERELLA

Once upon a time there lived a sweet little girl called Ella. Her mother had died when she was a child and soon her father too died. She lived with her mean step mother and her two proud step sisters. They may dear Ella do all the housework.

"Clean the chimneys, dust the cupboards, and my clothes" they cried.

The young girl was always covert, and shoddy and dust. Hence, she was called Cinderella.

One day the Prince invited all the girls in the kingdom for a ball in the castle. Everyone including the two step sisters were very excited. Cinderella too wanted to go to the ball but her sisters laughed at her.

"Stay at home and scrub the floors" screamed her step mother.

The day of the ball finally came. The step mother and step sisters left Cinderella alone at home. She was so disappointed that she began to cry. Suddenly, she saw a shimmering light in the room. A woman of the kind smile and a warmed hood in front of the floor.

"Who are you?" asked Cinderella surprised.

The woman replied "I'm your fairy God mother, I'll help you go to the ball, now...do stop crying".

"But I have nothing to wear" stop Cinderella, "I can't go to the ball!"

The fairy God mother smiled. She took the pumpkin and turned it into a grand carriage. With a way of a sound she changed six mice into six magnificent horses to pull the carriage, and another mouse into a foot man.

Finally she changed Cinderella's rags into a beautiful dress.

"Then, now, you look like a Princess" She said to Cinderella,

"But remember, you should come back home before 12 o'clock for then the spell will be broken"

Cinderella replied, "I won't forget, thank you so much".

And she went to the ball.

Cinderella was a prettier girl at the ball. Her step sisters didn't recognize her.

All the other girls were very jealous because the Prince danced with her the whole night. Cinderella had a wonderful time at the ball. However, the moment she heard the clock strike twelve, she remembered the fairy God mother's words and ran away. In
