(Photo: ANI) The polling in West Bengal's eight-phase elections, including in the high-stakes Nandigram seat, recorded a high voter turnout of 37.4 per cent till 11 am. Though the situation was tense in a few areas with a few skirmishes reported, tight security cover in all 30 constituencies which went to polls averted any major incidents. In Assam, the situation was peaceful with a significant number of voters turning up during the morning hours to exercise their franchise in the 39 seats where voting was underway in the second phase on Thursday. Both Assam and West Bengal witnessed intense campaigning by central leaders who have proposed lucrative projects and promises to deliver on the existing development schemes. While the central issue in the Bengal polls has been the "insider" versus "outsider" debate, elections in Assam have been centred on the issue of the Citizenship Amendment Act (CAA). While the BJP is banking on its development plank to return to power in Assam, its campaign in Bengal has been focused on attacking the Mamata Banerjee-led Trinamool Congress (TMC) government over its alleged role in several corruption cases. All eyes will be on Nandigram where CM Mamata Banerjee is locked in a fierce prestige battle with confidante-turned-adversary Suwendu Adhikari of the BJP when polling will be held in 30 seats in the second phase in Bengal. In the first phase of voting on March 27, West Bengal and Assam had recorded 84.63% and 79.97% turnout, respectively. In West Bengal, the elections are being conducted in eight phases. Unlike last time, the Election Commission is in charge of the state's security during the election time and has deployed several companies of central armed forces in the state. All the booths where polling will be held in the second phase have been declared as "sensitive". PTI quoted the EC as saying. It will deploy a total 651 companies of Central Armed Police for this phase of election which will be held in Bankura (Part II), Purba Medinipur (Part II), Paschim Medinipur (Part II) and South 24 Parganas (Part I). A total of 199 companies of CAPF will be deployed in Purba Medinipur, 210 companies in Paschim Medinipur, 170 in South 24 Parganas and 72 in Bankura. The fate of 171 candidates will be decided in the second phase by 75,94,549 voters who will exercise their franchise in 10,620 polling booths spread across the 30 constituencies. In Assam, the ruling BJP is contesting in 34 seats while its allies, the AGP and UPPL, are contesting in six and three seats, respectively. The saffron party will have a friendly contest with AGP and UPPL in two seats each. The Congress is contesting in 27, its partners the AIUDF in eight and BPF in four. The newly formed Assam Jatiya Parishad is contesting in 17 seats.
