Although a father dedicated to the three sons of him, Lydia, Chris and Natalie, his wife Miranda considers it unreliable. One day, Daniel leaves his job to follow a disagreement on a morally questionable script and returns home to launch a chaotic birthday party for Chris, despite the objections of Miranda. This rages Miranda to the point where she is struggling for divorce. At their first hearing custody, the court grants a single custody of children in Miranda; The shared custody is contingent that Daniel find a constant job and a suitable residence within three months. While Daniel works to rebuild his life of him, making an apartment and a new job as a shipping employee in a TV station, he learns that Miranda is looking for a housekeeper. He secretly alters his classified advertising form, then asks Miranda while he used the voice of her that reads the abilities to be posed as a series of unwanted candidates. He in the end he calls Miranda as "Mrs. Eufegenia Distrentfire", a British accented nicer with strong credentials, taking the surname of her from a title of newspapers. Miranda is impressed and invites Mrs. Dubitfire for an interview. Daniel asks his brother of him Frank, a makeup artist, and Frank domestic partner, Jack, to create a costume of Mrs. Doubtfire, including a prosthetic mask to make him look like an elderly woman. Miranda takes Mrs. Doubtfire after a successful interview. Children initially fight in the authority of Mrs. Doubrefire, but they come around and thrive and Miranda learn to get closer to her. Daniel learns several domestic skills as part of the role, further improving. However, this later creates another barrier for him to see her sons, since Miranda puts more trustworthy in Lady Dicefire of him and can't take himself to fire her. A night, Lydia and Chris Find out that Mrs. Doubtfire is actually Daniel, Etented to get their father back, they accept to keep her secret. One day, the Managing Director of Jonathan Lundy station sees Daniel playing with toy dinosaurs on the set of an attacker's show. Impressed by the voice of him acting and imagined, Lundy invites Daniel for a dinner to discuss him plans for the show. Daniel discovers that this is to be in the same place and time as a planned birthday dinner for Miranda from her new boyfriend of her dunmeyer, to whom Ms. Mrs.Dfire is invited. Unable to change appointment, Daniel changes in e-out of Mrs. Duzzoffire's costume to participate in both events. Becoming drunk, Daniel slips when he accidentally returns to Lundy in him costume, but quickly supports Mrs. Doubtfire is the idea of him for the new show. After listening that Stu is allergic to pepper, Daniel creeps into the kitchen and stumbles of Stu's Order of jambalaya with cayenne powder powder. Stu lock on her dimer, and Daniel, feeling guilty, he administered Heimlich's maneuver like the Mrs. Doubt. The action makes yes that the prosthetic mask partially detached Daniel's face, revealing the identity of him and the horrifying Miranda, which wandered out of the restaurant with children. At their next case custody, Daniel emphasizes that he met the needs of the judge, then he explains him actions of him. The judge, while sympathetic, considers the layer of Daniel as a non-orthodox lady dairydefire, and grants the custody full of Miranda, further limiting the by Daniel to monitor the visits on Saturdays, which devastates it. Without Mrs.Defire, Miranda and the sons of her become miserable, recognizing how much "she" has improved their lives. They are then surprised to discover that Daniel, like Mrs. Doubtfire, hosts a new show for children called the home of Eufegenia, which becomes a national success. Miranda visit Daniel on the set after shooting and admits that things were better when he was involved in the family. He then organizes the joint custody, allowing Daniel as himself to take the children after school. While Daniel leaves with children, Miranda looks at an episode of Eufegenia's house where Mrs. Doubrefire responds to a letter from a girl whose parents have separated, saying that no matter what families have, love will prevail.
